Subject: EOL Notification—SPM type power module

To whom it may concern:

Effective immediately, we have discontinued the production of Sumida type name SPM (PSI2). This includes product families, SPM1004, SPM1005, SPM1006 and SPM1008.

Unfortunately, we are unable to offer a last time buy for these products. We plan to introduce an alternate source shortly.

Please feel free to contact your Sumida sales representative if you have any further questions.

Sincerely,

Carl LeJambre III

General Manager
