ODIN-W262-00B	ODIN-W262-03B [1]	Contains the latest available software (v4.0.0) for the ODIN-W2 series

2 Reason for discontinuation

ODIN-W260-00B and ODIN-W262-00B were the first releases in the ODIN-W2 series. The product's software has been developed with new features, higher stability, and bug corrections since this initial release. There are several successor product versions available to replace ODIN-W26x-00B with higher levels of functionality. As only limited quantities were ordered on ODIN-W26x-00B and newer versions are available, it will be discontinued.

3 Recommendation

All versions in the ODIN-W2 series are pin compatible with ODIN-W26x-00B. Customers currently using ODIN-W26x-00B should migrate to a later product version. Our recommendation is to use the latest available version. Before migrating, it is recommended that customers test their specific application with the new ODIN-W2 product version. Putting a successor product into use does not require any actions relevant to approvals and certifications.
